

An Incomplete Life

I had this goal

My Actual Life Plan

I'm stuck in the mud

It took a WRONG TURN

I don't need another self-help book

I know where to turn for help

A Missed Opportunity

A missed opportunity is a sentence that is not finished.

A missed opportunity can be a wrong choice when you know what the right choice is.

A missed opportunity is not taking a gamble on the wrong lottery ticket. That was just gambling

A missed opportunity is not that famous phrase, "I was in the wrong place at the wrong time." or "It's the difference between 5 minutes and getting caught."

The bottom line is that a missed opportunity is not even bothering to try.

I missed opportunity is

Having a job opening and never applying for it.

Having the 2 years for a college degree; but never starting

Having a Bible; but never reading it.

A Missed Opportunity
