

“The Couples of Christmas”

Please Welcome Your Cast of Characters:

Zacharias – A tall, older man with a full beard, a jutting chin, and slightly balding head. His voice carries a wise, country accent, and he speaks with discernment shaped by years in priestly service. He is devout and precise, yet visibly shaken by divine interruption.

Elisabeth – About 50, Elisabeth’s voice is thoughtful and pointed. She speaks matter-of-factly, with gratitude rooted in sorrow turned to joy. Though reserved and courteous, her words carry the weight of truth and the insight of a life once barren but now blooming with hope.

Mary – The youngest of the characters. Her voice is light, wide-eyed, and tender with innocence. She radiates joyful expectation, with a heart full of trust. Surprised by the message of the angel, she reflects the simplicity of pure faith and sincere delight in her betrothal to Joseph.

Joseph – A youthful, strong-minded man with a furrowed brow from deep thinking. His voice is measured, responsible, and driven by logic. Though stern in appearance, his heart is steady. He is a practical dreamer, a builder of homes and futures, now facing a divine dilemma.

Narrator – Chaplain Aaron, who introduces and transitions between scenes. He narrates with clarity, compassion, and reverence, drawing the audience into the unfolding mystery.
