

My Little Children...

The son of THUNDER has become the disciple of consolation.

John had gone from just a hearty fisher to a "fisher of men" to that disciple who leaned on Jesus to associate pastor at Ephesus Bible Fellowship.

This church was established by the Apostle Paul and lead by young Timothy. We also found that the Apostle John assisted in the multiple churches in Ephesus until his arrest, imprisonment and exile to Isle of Patmos. Sometime during those years, the Apostle John penned these words...

"my little children"

What would take the heart of a tough fisherman and give him the heart of a gentle shepherd? There was more than just a Sunday altar call that changed his heart!
