

PROVERBS:

INGREDIENTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL CHRISTIAN LIFE

Shrink-Flatation has taken its toll on everything! I looked for a jar of my favorite Knott's Berry Farm strawberry preserves, and it had a phrase over the top of it that said, "Not available at this time." That is the worst news ever. The classic has been replaced with plastic. Knott's has been substituted with NOT. Did we add this same problem outlook toward our children and their spiritual life as well? Have we added shrink-flatation to the nurturing of our children & grandchildren? How do we plan for a future which includes Providing an Earthly & Eternal Heritage?

Check this out in Proverbs 13:22 (Psalm 16:5-9)

"A good man leaveth an inheritance to his children's children: and the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just."

Wisdom:

"Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus." Philippians 2:5

"And these words, which I command thee this day, shall be in thine heart: And thou shalt teach them diligently unto thy children...."

Deuteronomy 6:6,7a

Book of Proverbs will tell us a better way to decide daily life issues.

BIBLE WORD FACTS Includes Proverbs 13:22.

Life Importance: nouns lead to action words – choose daily

"The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places; yea, I have a goodly heritage." Psalm 16:6

How do I go from being self-sufficient to being interdependent on a family? Is it possible to be serving, working and even living in community together with them? We have become wonderful GREAT American individualistic thinkers! The problem comes at the end of the road when we are truly in need of a supportive family. Do we wait until we, as adults, have our "prodigal son" break-down? Or could we build on a loving friendship of Christ-centered values that share in hopes and goals in resources and even assets?

This comes into the same values that Jesus had when He was living and serving in Galilee. Our Lord and Saviour was focused on teaching and assisting in both the physical and eternal. He offered Salvation to all and a successful lifestyle of living within our means. Living Bread and Daily Bread. This is Providing an Earthly & Eternal Heritage
