

PROVERBS:

INGREDIENTS FOR A SUCCESSFUL CHRISTIAN LIFE

"A friend loveth at all times." Prov. 17:17 You do not completely understand the value of a true friendship until life has shaken you up and your friend turns out to be a part of the best ingredients of your life. A friend that stays with you and prays with you is bestest of all!

Check this out in Proverbs 27:10 (1 Corinthians 13:4-7)

"10 Thine own friend, and thy father's friend, forsake not; neither go into thy brother's house in the day of thy calamity: for better is a neighbour that is near than a brother far off."

Wisdom:

"Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends." John 15:13

"A man that hath friends must shew himself friendly: and there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother."

Proverbs 18:24

Book of Proverbs will tell us a better way to decide daily life issues.

If "God demonstrated His love toward us while we were still sinners", and if Christ has forgiven us our sins and "cleansed us from all unrighteousness," then we as friends should gladly extend that same grace to one another. True friendship reflects the heart of Christ by showing patience, kindness, and understanding, even when it is not deserved.

Easygoing patience should characterize our relationships, and resilient forgiveness should come naturally, not as a struggle or second thought. As friends, we should seek to encourage and strengthen one another, inspiring growth in our walk with Christ and helping each other become more like Him. This is the Value of Christian Friendship.
